Ty Cobb Says Training Trips Do Players But Little Good

Says He Keeps in Training All the Time—New York Papers Oppose Having Johnson Fight There.

TY COBB questions the benefits of training trips, saying they are unnecessary for the player who takes care of himself. "I take care of myself the year around, I do not indulge in excesses, nor do I overwork myself, so why go on a training trip? One week's work is all the preparation I need to get in playing condition. It is the way Ty looks at it. Ty believes that for a player who does not keep himself in condition during the winter a training trip is all right, but he says there are many number of players to whom the trip is more of a detriment than a benefit. They go south, and don't know what they should they work under a hot sun, and get all the freshness taken out of them and by the time the opening of the season comes they are stale. I believe in doing continuous, but light work all through the year," says Ty, "and then when spring comes, a week with the team in all I need to put me in mid-season form. I did this last year, and it was the best year in my record. I undoubtedly that my worst year was the one which followed a spring training trip. President Nevin and manager Jennings have never been in California, and I believe the southern trip, since."

Jimmy Britt is considering an offer to re-enter the ring. Hugh McIntosh has offered him three fights in Sydney, N. S. W., during February and March, and it is the hope of the Sydney boxing manager to accept. This same Hugh McIntosh is more of a hustler than any of the Yankee boxers, and McIntosh, and is planning to engineer a boxing tourney in that island of the Antipodes this year. McIntosh is planning to hold the affair on a very large scale and make it worth while for the boxers entering. He is coming to America to arrange for the pick of the Yankee lightweight. There is a possibility of Ad Wolgast entering the affair, as the little champion has stated that he would like to make the trip. "According to New York baseball men there are 11 mighty good jobs open if available men can be found to fill them. For the 15 big leaguers, there are only five real first basemen. These are Chase, of the New York Americans; Hoblitzel, of the Cincinnati Reds; Mark, of the Giants; Konechny, of the St. Louis Nationals and Melnitz, of the Athletics. Who will fill the open berths remains to be seen.

New York newspapers have started an agitation against any preparation to take to that city any match involving the presence of the negro champion, Jack Johnson. Any bout in which the negro might appear is likely to be a danger boxing in New York state. Less than two years ago Jeffries and Johnson were driven out of California by public opinion, though championship games have, and probably will continue to be fought there. New York papers are now in the face of an opposing public opinion, to stage a bout with Johnson, unpopular as he is, would give opponents of boxing a rallying cry. The result might be an effort to repeal the present enabling boxing law.

Connie Mack is planning the most strenuous training trip of his career for the world's champions next spring. Connie's veterans will report on the first of March, but he will take his youngsters to San Antonio about Feb. 20 where they will condition themselves.

playing exhibition games in minor league towns. The players consent of the home club, while this same rule applies to minor league players and minor league clubs playing in major league territory.

August Herrmann, president of the Cincinnati baseball club, was re-elected chairman of the commission on Jan. 2. Bruce, of the St. Louis club, of the American league was elected secretary, while Joseph Flanner was chosen as secretary to the chairman of the commission.

FIFTH SERIES OF GRAMMAR SCHOOLS GAMES SATURDAY.

The fifth series of basketball games in the Grammar Schools' Athletic League will be played at the 3rd Saturday afternoon. First game called at 2 o'clock. The contesting teams will be San Jacinto versus Mesa, for the first game, and Sunset versus Lamar, in the second. The San Jacinto-Mesa game should prove a very close and exciting one, as these two are the strongest teams in the league, and the first place in the standing.

In addition to the bronze shield to the winning school having the highest percentage at the end of the season, a secondary shield will be given the school making second place. The standing:

The standing of the teams and their percentage is:

San Jacinto 3 2 0 1.000

Mesa 3 3 0 1.000

Lamar 3 1 2 .333

Sunset 1 1 1 .333

HOLDS SIGNAL PRACTICE.

The "Y" basketball team held a brisk signal practice Thursday night in preparation for its clash with the high school team Saturday night.

DIRECTOR SHOWS EL PASO'S GROWTH

List of Names of El Pasoans Is Much Larger Than a Year Ago.

The new city directory for 1912 is being distributed. The book for 1912 differs from that of last year in that the names are run in smaller type. The directory shows a noticeable growth in the business section, with many new firms recorded, and a decided increase in population.

In preparing the directory, over 5138 houses in El Paso were visited. The present population of El Paso is rated at 41,312, which is based on the figures of the last official census as compared to names in the directory.

The preface to the directory outlines in a general way the progressive steps El Paso has taken during the past year, particularly commenting on the domestic good second in the nation, the capture of Reyes and the future of his revolutionary movement; on the beginning of the Pearson mills project, the opening of the Pearson mills project, the enlargement of the smelter, and the conversion of Fort Bliss from an infantry to a cavalry post.

The many civic improvements in El Paso are mentioned and the preface closes with the comment that the publishers found none of the apprehensive and inactive condition that prevails in many other cities and that El Paso is steadily going forward in all lines.

EXCHANGES THEATER FOR BIG LAND TRACT

South Plains Poultry Show to Be Held in Plainview.

Plainview, Texas, Jan. 5.—The Schick, Plainview's $25,000 reinforced concrete theater, has changed hands. Dr. Ballard, of Abilene, exchanged eight sections of land near Ft. Stockton for the property. The land is valued at $10,000. The theater was owned by Levi Schick.

The Kirmen's benefit box supper was given at the city hall. Jas. R. DeLay was master of ceremonies, and Mrs. Eva L. Barnes, Miss Lena Williams, Miss Ruby Hatcher, Miss Helen Dickey, Geo. Hutchins, Miss Amy Nash, Miss Van Deventer, Miss Gwen DeLay, Miss Clara Brinkman, Jessie Wells and Fred Cousenour took part in the program. A large crowd was present. After the supper was over the young people had a dance.

Elmer R. Anderson, assistant postmaster at Plainview for the past two years, has received from the postal department a commission as a member of the board of civil service examiners and secretary at Plainview for the tenth district, which has its headquarters at New Orleans.

Interest is being manifested in the first annual exhibit of the South Plains Poultry association, which is to be held at Plainview Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, January 16 to 19. It is estimated that between 500 and 600 birds will be on exhibition. The exhibition is an evidence of the impetus the breeding of fine fowls has received in the Plains country the past few years. Any fancier of Texas is qualified to make entries.

There is no better medicine made for colds than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions, aids expectoration, and restores the system to a healthy condition. For sale by all dealers.

REEVES TEACHERS' INSTITUTE CLOSSES

J. C. Jones Is Elected Superintendent of the Pecos Normal.

Pecos, Tex., Jan. 5.—The Reeves county teachers institute has adjourned. About 45 teachers attended the institute and elected Prof. J. C. Jones of the local high school as instructor and superintendent of the Pecos summer normal, which will be held here.

Superintendent Hawkins of the state Sunday school association has arrived in Pecos for the purpose of conducting a joint inter-denominational Sunday school institute. Most of the Protestant churches of the city are to cooperate. The sessions will be held at the First Baptist church, of which Rev. J. B. Cole is pastor.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Reeves County Good Roads association, it was decided to conduct a vigorous campaign in precincts one and four of Reeves county in favor of the $100,000 good roads bond election of Jan. 15.

The first political announcements in the county election appeared here in the local papers this week. Saw Trow, present mayor of Pecos, and W. W. Camp, are announced for the office of tax assessor.

The Western Union Telegraph company, which for the past six months has occupied quarters in the Commercial club building, has moved downstairs into the new Cowan building.

AGED BANKER SAYS PRISON AWAITS HIM

Battle Creek, Mich., Jan. 5.—"It's Leavenworth prison for me, and the sooner the better," said H. M. Dearing, the aged Abilene banker as he prepared to leave for Detroit with his son, Palmer M. Dearing, in custody of a United States marshal. Dearing and son had confessed forgery amounting to $105,000 that resulted in the closing of the Abilene National bank last Tuesday.

"Is there any hope for the deniers?" the aged prisoner was asked. "No, none at all," he replied. "I am on the verge of breaking down. Then be choked back the tears and replied: 'No, none at all.'"

The men were bound over to the federal grand jury at Detroit under $25,000 bonds each.

Wear tailor made clothes the new year and save money. Still a few of those snappy unaltered-for suits and overcoats left. All this left at a great loss, but you gain. A perfect fit guaranteed. R. V. Pearson, 100 Texas.
